Golian Treize - Ends!

SILVERTON, Others to Begin

Keith Sessler had backed up an impressive 38 points to win "Golian Treize" as Player #1. Wayne Morrison came in second with 14 points. Paul Saunders survived with 3 corrected traps at Polaris from turn 3 onward. Mike Pfefferkorn's forces became extinct on Turn 26.

Our first game of Silverton begins this issue. Those signed up should check out page 12 for their Player number and details.

"Eakido", our second HISTORY OF THE WORLD game begins this issue. Those interested should see the bottom of page 7 for details.

Given space, we'll also be starting a BRITANNIA game and a CIRCUS MAXIMUS in the next month or two. I'll need color preferences for the former, and orders for the Romans if selecting Purple first or retreat orders for the Single, etc if choosing the others. For CM, I'll need prep points, charioteer's name, and color preference for two chariots. If we have four or five players, each will command a pair of chariots. If we have six to ten players, each will have one, so you might send in your druthers for a single team and a double team. If there's a difference,

As some of you are aware, Tropical Storm Alberto made landfall about 10 miles from here, the "eye" missing Wayne "Disaster" Maguire Morrison's place by a few thousand yards--not bad aim for something with a hopping radius of about two states. To add insult to injury the sucker at this writing (Thursday the 7th) seems to have cocked up and is trying to overrun him again.

ALTERNATE ALERT: We have three DIP MIGs this time. Jim Frying's two Austrian positions and Drew Frantz's Italy in "Boris VII" are up for grabs; I expect both back, but invite anyone interested to send in orders for both. As usual, Mr. Ner will randomly choose from the applicants. If no one applies, we'll probably draft some of our e-mail subbers at the last moment.

IMPORTANT: We ought to be heading out for vacation either shortly before or shortly after the deadline. Early submission of orders will be greatly appreciated.

We've fixed up the Sub list so that the numbers are legible by moving the E-mail addresses to the facing page and moving the expiration dates to the mailing label. The E-sub expirations are with their E-addresses.

BORIS'S BULLETIN BOARD

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH: "A good general not only sees the way to victory, he knows when victory is beyond him." --Polybius

Don Chinnery is looking for a few 1835 players to fill out his postal game. Cost is one BASE per turn. See you there.

BOOS & KUBOS

This month's Madame Boldus Press Excellence Award goes to Chuck Henns for his article datelined London in "Boris VII."

This month's Mr. Ner Super-Sudsy Bomb goes to Jim Frying for delay of game.

DEADLINE FOR ALL GAMES IS NOON (CDT) 6 AUG 94

TROOP MOVEMENTS

Germany Speaks!!

Others Mute

Winter 1913/14

GER: It's been an interesting two years. My trial by fire is finally over...the burn wounds are healing nicely. I'm not really sure how to discuss the game, it being my first and all. I did more fun and became even more paranoid than I was previously (Thanks Jim). I look forward to future games.

ITA: Can't we all just get along?

GM: The overall course of the game was determined by three strategic factors. The first being the initial Austro-Italian cooperation. TJ, of all people, should've known better than to let it go on as long as it did. The second were the inevitable, but unpredictable, Russian NMRS. You can count on Saunders to miss a few when things start to go badly. The third was Germany's counterproductive policy of sniping up English centers when the German home-centers were occupied. Surely Wormtongue's peculiar brand of diplomacy was at work here. That having been said, I believe the critical mistake was made by England in 1906 when she disbanded A SEV instead of retreating it to ARN. This represented a loss of half of England's armies and generously removed a thorn from the Austro-Italian backside that would've taken them a year or two to remove themselves and might have precipitated an Austrian war then and there when Italy had the troops in place to better handle Austrian perfidy. All four of the above were in Wormtongue's favor, and the rest, as they say, is history.

I'd like to thank Mike for taking over the Turkish position when Don resigned and I'd like to thank TJ and Jack for hanging in there to the end despite deteriorating chances. Congratulations again to Jim for a finely crafted victory.

Rezzarday Reelected!!

Spring 1908

VI

WALL STREET JOURNAL—Investors appear to have missed a major opportunity by not investing in France this season, as Emperor Wayne would seemingly prefer to let France guard the western approaches to the Med while his own forces favorably redeploy to meet Tsar Dovid's steamroller. Duke Andrew has the luxury of choosing his ally and axis of attack.

PR to AUS: You will pay for your insolence!

PR to ENG: Keep up the fight. You are a true ally. I wish we could have worked together more. I believe we could have ruled the World, crushing the RATs under our boots.

VIENTIANE—A total war effort has been mounted against the forces of the Evil Empire. There are reports of mass graves and terror stricken civilians have been coaxed out of hiding with food in the areas conquered by the Russian Army.

It is rumoured that there are no male Turks left in native Turkey and that a Final Solution(?) has been used and the country sacked.

The former members of the Italian Military, those German areas freed from occupation by the Russian forces and other Minor Allies have enlisted with Austria to defeat the Russian.

We ask that France and England join in a Holy War against the Evil Empire. Concessions can be reached on a diplomatic level.

RIOTS IN AUSTRIA & ITALY!!

VII

Fall 1903

MURKWOOD: Uncertainty wracks the face of Europe as riots paralyze two more great powers and England falls under the sway of an alleged escaped American lunatic. Archduke Ferdinand's accession to heir-apparent has touched off demonstrations in neighboring Italy demanding an immediate preemptive attack on the Empire. In Austria-Hungary itself, the Cardinal Archbishop of Vienna has threatened excommunication of all in government if the Archduke were not returned to house arrest for unspecified "crimes against Humanity." Unnoticed amidst the hubbub was the Russian reinvocation of Germany and the British sacking of the Russian capital, St. Petersburg.

EMBASSY BEAT

BALTIMORE—Officials at the Maryland Psychiatric Hospital today were still unable to explain how a potentially dangerous patient was able to leave the institution and set sail for Europe. Calling himself the Emperor Charles Napoleon, the longtime resident reportedly mauled two guards and wrote "Vive la France" on the walls with their blood before making his way to the port of Baltimore. Port authorities apparently accepted freshly printed bills bearing the "emperor's" likeness as payment for first class passage to Le Havre.

LONDON—Reports indicate the escapee was confined to discover himself heading the English government instead of the French, but was quoted as pleased that "here, at least, I can speak the language." He immediately ordered the execution of "whoever is responsible for the dangerously reduced level of the armed forces." The Emperor was last heard screaming "On to Paris!" so no one in particular.

ST PETERSBURG—It's no fun being the King of the Hill.

BOLDHOME

This game is pegged to the results of "Bourse VII" on p. 4. Players start with 1000 units of eachairing European currency (current value given on the "Par" line below). For every 100 units of currency bought or sold its price will go up or down 1% to a maximum of $0.01 (exception: eliminated countries' currencies are worth $0.00). A player may never sell more than 500 units of a currency at a time. At game's end, scores are computed by multiplying the number of 100 unit blocks of each nation's currency by its number of supply centers and summing over all active countries. The winner is the player with the highest score.

FALL 1908 Action

PRB sells 500 pounds, 500 lira and 500 plasters and buys 1000 rubles

( $$12 + 480 + 575 - $1085 = $11$ )

RVE sells 500 francs and buys 500 crowns and 500 marks ( $$870 + 515 - 580 - $20 = $305$ ).

CLOWNS sell 500 plasters and buy 500 crowns ( $$37 + 575 - 580 = $52$ ).

FLESH GORDON--Turn 30 combat

SIMON WAGSTAFF--on Turn 31.

GOLAN TREVIZE--Complete. Game statements requested; transcript enclosed.

Please expedite your orders. The time you save is only your own.

SILVERTON House Rules

We'll be using the same system as Randy Cox's Cogniscenti, although I'll be using an abbreviated notation. We're playing the Basic game this time around, and we'll play the short game as an option. I'll be publishing a map where player's routes will be indicated by placing their # in the price box. We'll probably use a grid like Randy, rather than relabeling the map like Mike Quist is doing in his River City Railway Gazette. That having been said, here are our special rules:

1. All actions in a phase are simultaneous.
2. If you lose a dispute and the winner decides not to stake the claim, you may not take it until the next game turn.
3. Any trades, deliveries, etc. must be noted on all involved players' orders for that turn. Otherwise the trade delivery is voided.
4. All monies will be public. $60,000 wins the game unless the Short game is agreed upon unanimously.
5. The Turn Sequence: We end our turns after Phase III with an exception: all claims deck cards are then known. At that point, you indicate on your orders 1) whether you stake the claim; 2) which claims to operate; 3) any trades; 4) all deliveries (including conditional deliveries based on what you net on operations rolls); 5) which track to survey and claim to prospect next turn (track construction is automatic once surveyed). OBVIOUSLY, order #5 is all you'll send in for the first turn.

The players are:

#1: Don Chinnery
#2: Bill Wordsmeier
#3: Wayne Morrison

#4: Paul Zieske
#5: Michael Quist
#6: Dan Farrow

Available Claims:

#10: Heber City (silver)
#26: Silverton (silver)
#49: Hiawatha (coal)
Passenger Cards 1-6

#18: Aspen (silver)
#34: Dolores (lumber)
#54: Walsenburg (Coal)
The Deck

All players start with $8,000 and the S/P status given on p8 of the Rules. Due next time is which track to survey (identify by cost, length, destination) and which claim to prospect. Also your vote on the standard ($60,000) or short ($30,000) game.

THE HUNT

R. Fisher Charges!

THE HUNT is a word game inspired by James Lipton's book, "An Exaltation of Larks", where we propose a noun and the players are asked to propose a collective noun to fit, such as "flock" for "sheep" or "pride" for "lions". Boris and Ms Nar will rank each entry for each word and the best score will be the winner. Each word is a possible 1 point, but the point will be split if either more than one player suggests the word or two or more words are ranked equally. The first player to score 10 points wins six free issues of this rag or nine issues of Brad Wilson's Vertigo. THE HUNT is run in Chases or rounds. We report the 4th Chase and begin the 5th Chase of the 3rd Hunt. Gentlefolk, mount your steeds! To the Hunt!

ERRATA: Our totals for Scott Cameron and Wayne Morrison were in error; they should be 7.16 and 4.65 respectively.

- c) Ms Nar is sympathetic, which is why it appears this time. However, don't insult her hometown or you'll be "in a heap of trouble."
